Sheboygan Coin Club Annual Show Mar. 25

Sunday, March 25, The Sheboygan Coin Club will hold it's annual show at North Bowl Lanes. This will be the clubs main project in connection with National Coin Week which is the week of April 15 as proclaimed by President Reagan.

1984 has already produced a second silver dollar and a ten dollar gold coin to commemorate the summer

Olympic in Los Angeles. The Mint also has started to take orders for it's 1984 Proof Sets.

This show would be a great place to take any questions or interest in coin collecting one would have. The show also presents a great opportunity for children to see it's nation history as presented with it's coins.

We had a very successful show on Mar. 25. Very well attended. Had many displays etc. by members. Had a booth by local post office. Had dealers from all over area.

This was our project in connection with Coin Club week.

I had send for posters & buttons & literature. The posters about Coin Club Week were posted at entrances to the bldg. the show was at. Some were placed in our local library. The buttons etc. were passed out from courtesy table at our show.

The show was announced on local radio stations, also on Cable TV.

Our club is very active, well attended. Have many types of programs, and a auction at ea. meeting. Our club has app. 35-40 members. Varies as dues are pd.

Thank-you, Mrs. Charlotte Beniger
